Subject: WAPO Interview

You are set for the noon on the record interview with Darryl Fears, staff writer for the Washington Post.

Attached is an updated file with messages I shared with him and the substantive update I emailed him. Also attached is the letter we sent to Lois Gibbs regarding the buyout.

Expected questions:

1. Are you refusing to meet with the moms?
2. Why has it taken EPA so long to fix the site?
3. Why did it take two years or so to make the decision about the isolation barrier?
4. What do you think will happen if the site is turned over to the USACE?
5. Why isn't anything done to help people know they are buying a house next to a radioactive landfill.
6. Why can't you relocate the families around the landfill?
